FREE Grant Writing 101

August 30, 10am -12pm

Grant Writing for Community
Health and Substance Use
Prevention Professionals

Hosted by the NEK Prevention Center of Excellence | NVRH and Umbrella

If you're new to the idea or if you've written a few, granting writing can be intimidating.

Grants are a primary funding mechanism for much of public health and necessary funding streams, especially for community organizations. Join our two-hour session to learn grant writing- basics, how-to's, tips, and tricks to make the process a little less daunting, so that your next grant response/proposal can be a winning one.

Save the Date! New England Rural Health Association Annual Conference

Thriving Rural Communities: Navigating An Ever Evolving Landscape

November 1 and 2, 2022

Killington, VT | Virtual

This is an opportunity for rural healthcare professionals, hospital administrators, educators, students and community leaders to learn from experts in rural topics, and to network with each other. Designed to involve all sectors that impact the health of people in rural New England, this multidisciplinary event gives attendees the opportunity to delve into specific areas of interest or participate in sessions spanning a variety of topic areas. This event is designed to meet the needs of those interested in improving the health and wellbeing of our region's rural communities.

The VT CHEP and the VT Community Foundation are working to obtain a limited number of scholarships to assist this the expenses for registration and hotel - stay tuned for details.
